

OPTICAL TECHNIQUES WORKSHOP
Optical Microscopy of Sands and
Minerals/Microscope QA and Maintenance

Presented by:

Midwest Microscopy and Microanalysis Society

A local affiliate of the Microscopy Society of America and the Microbeam Analysis Society

Wednesday, September 29, 2010
Hooke College of Applied Sciences,
The McCrone Group
Westmont, IL
Map and directions:
<http://www.hookecollege.com/area/>

Space may be limited.
Please RSVP by Monday, September 20.

Email your contact information to:

Elaine Schumacher
eschumacher@mccrone.com

(Tel: 630-887-7100)

Onsite Registration Fee: Free to MMMS members, $20.00 for non-members, $5.00 for students (MMMS membership included in fee) Lunch is included.
We welcome vendor participation. Tables for literature and exhibits will be available.
Please contact us for details.

Setup and Registration: 8:00 am to 9:00 am

Morning Program:

Microminerals: A Selection of My Favorites – Dan Behnke

Optical Microscopy of Sands and Minerals – Dick Bisbing, McCrone Associates

Microprobe Analysis of Minerals – Craig Schwandt – McCrone Associates

MSA Project MICRO – Let's Play in the Sandbox – Heidi Ullberg, McCrone Associates

Light Microscope QA/QC – Not to Sound Like a Broken Record – Tom Van Howe, McCrone Associates

Afternoon Program:

Demonstration of Optical Microscope Maintenance and Calibration – Jeff McGinn, McCrone Microscopes and Accessories

Optical Microscopy of Sands and Minerals – A Hands-On Workshop – Dick Bisbing, Brian Bierman, Heidi Ullberg, Kristie Diebold, McCrone Associates

All attendees will be able to take part in both workshops. The program will end at approximately 4:15. A tour of the McCrone Associates Laboratory will be offered afterward.